NEGROES SHOT DOWN.

Deadly Work of an Angry Masked Mob in a Southern Village.

TROOPS GO FROM ATLANTA.

A Temporary Jail Was Entered at Sunrise by Lynchers, Who Attacked Blacks Imprisoned For Burning the Town.

Palmetto, Ga., March 16.—Five dead negroes lie in Johnson's warehouse. Besides them, groaning in agony, are four of their race, all victims of an assault made by white men of this neighborhood at sunrise.

This little city has had two incendiary fires, which have almost destroyed it since Jan. 1, and the negroes who were shot down while begging mercy lie where they fell on the blood-soaked floor of the improvised jail.

The dead are: Bud Cotton, Henry Bingham, Tip Hutson, Ed Brown and John Bugby.

The wounded are: Clem Watts, shot in the abdomen; George Taylor, wounded in thigh; Isham Brown, shot in body; John Jamison, arm fractured.

The citizens are patrolling the main street of the town and dispersing an occasional group of muttering negroes, who seem determined to get some form of revenge for the slaughter.

The scenes at Johnson's warehouse, where the nine negroes were confined, and which is now filled with the dead and dying, is a revolting and miserable one.

Blood covers the floor and blackened walls are indented with rifle shots. Wives and children of negroes are kneeling by their side in the dimly-lighted room and piercing the air with cries and moans of anguish.

The bodies of the dead negroes have not been removed. The coroner has been notified of the shooting, and will empanel a jury about noon. Several doctors were summoned and spent the morning working with the wounded.

Mayor Arnold has summoned a guard of 75 citizens to patrol the streets, and warehouses, and every citizen seen on the streets is armed with a gun. The situation is believed to be practically under control, owing to the good work of Mayor Arnold.

The Palmetto cotton mills shut down for the day on account of the excitement.

Action of the Mob.

The mob was composed of 150 men. Where they came from is a mystery so far, as the people of the town know. That some of the people of Palmetto, but not the better class, were in the mob goes without saying. Every face was masked, and when the warehouse was reached, the special guard of five men were covered without a word. In a minute the mob was in the big warehouse and the fusillade opened. The frightened negroes sent up yell after yell, begging for mercy, but it had no effect on the mob. When its work was finished, the masked mob turned and quickly disappeared as it had come—on horseback.

Two fires of incendiary origin have occurred here this year, one on Feb. 23 and the other five days later. Fourteen business houses in all were destroyed.

Nine negroes were arrested on suspicion and taken to Johnson's warehouse to await preliminary trial.

The leader of the gang, Bud Cotton, is said to have made a written confession of himself and associates. He was the first to die in the mob's bloody work.

The negroes of this community have threatened in the past week to burn Fairburn, the county seat, and it is said the mob came largely from that town.

Sheriff C. Adderbald is expected from Fairburn with a large posse at any moment.

The city is quieting down. The militia from Atlanta arrived about noon, a call for troops having been made on Governor Chandler.

At noon friends of the wounded at the warehouse and were given those injured. Clem Watts, one of those who had put in the morning groaning loudly, was carefully carried to a wagon and taken home. Upon his arrival there it was found that he did not bear a scratch.

Troops Ordered Out.

Atlanta, March 16.—The mayor of Palmetto, a little town, 25 miles out on Atlanta and West Point road, telephoned Governor Chandler at 5 a. m. that a mob had entered the little house being used at a jail there and shot nine negroes. He asked that militia be sent at once to safeguard the people, as it was feared the negroes would revolt and do the whites harm. Governor Chandler ordered Captain W. W. Barber of the Capital City guards, with 50 men, to proceed by special train.

Reward Offered.

Atlanta, March 16.—Governor Chandler issued a proclamation offering a reward of $500 for the apprehension and delivery of the first member of the mob, and a further reward of $100 or each additional person implicated in the killing of the negroes at Palmetto. The governor said: "I regard the outrage as simply inexcusable. These men had been arrested, as I am informed, and proof was at hand to convict them. The law was amply able to punish them."

MURDERED FOR MONEY.

Albert Lukens Confesses to the Killing of Mrs. Steigler.

Cincinnati, March 16.—The murderer of Mrs. Anthony Steigler of Mount Lookout, whose dead body was found in her home by her son, has been found in Albert Lukens, 16, living with his widowed mother in Clifton. Lukens was arrested and made a full confession, saying his motive was robbery. He got about $70.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., March 16.—The Cleveland Museum of Art, Cleveland; the Conservative Loan and Savings company, Cincinnati, capital stock $500,000; the Kirkwood Oil and Gas company, Hendrysburg, capital stock $10,000; the Adena Oil and Gas company, Adena, capital stock $2,500; the Chilcothe and McArthur Telephone company, McArthur, capital stock $15,000; the National Fire Brick company, Cleveland, capital stock $100,000.

James Patterson Shot.

Cincinnati, March 16.—James Patterson, a well-known character and prominent in the politics, was fatally shot by James DePugh, a lookout at one of the gambling establishments in the city. Patterson was standing at his doorway with his wife, when DePugh fired five times at him. The fatal wound is in the abdomen. Mrs. Patterson was shot in the wrist.

With an Ohio Culprit.

Chicago, March 16.—Deputy United States Marshal Robinson left for Columbus, O., having in custody William J. Gray, charged with robbing the post-office at Granville, O., in 1896. Since that time Gray has been serving a sentence in the Pontiac reformatory.

Jones Announces His Candidacy.

Youngstown, O., March 16.—A local paper prints an interview with Lieutenant Governor A. W. Jones of this city, in which he announces himself a candidate for the next governorship of Ohio. General Jones has been urged for some time to declare himself.

Run on the Bank Resumed.

Cincinnati, March 16.—The run on the Cincinnati Savings Society bank was resumed, blockading the sidewalk and obstructing half the street. All applicants were paid in full.

Two Girls and One Boy.

Napoleon, O., March 16.—Mrs. Henry Leaders, living at Stanley, this county, gave birth to triplets, two girls and a boy.

May Have Been a Man.

St. Louis, March 16.—The mystery increases in the case of the west end widow, Mrs. McVean, whose face and body were badly burned Tuesday night by acids thrown by some unknown hand. From what can be learned from Mrs. McGraw, sister of Mrs. McVean, it is now thought a man attired as a woman, committed the deed. Another anonymous letter has been addressed to Mrs. McVean, and is now in the hands of her attorney, ex-Judge Thomas B. Harvey.

President Is Better.

Thomasville, Ga., March 16.—President McKinley's drive lasted from 7 to 12:30, and took him over a delightful rolling country and through forests of pines, beech, magnolias and oaks. The president himself drove one of the teams. At the clubhouse, where the carriages stopped, Mr. McKinley expressed himself as already feeling better than when he left Washington.

The Norna at Ceylon.

Columbo, Ceylon, March 16.—The American schooner yacht Norna, belonging to N. J. Weaver of the Atlantic Yacht club, New York, reported in distress in the Red sea by the British cruiser Brisk, arrived here on Tuesday last and reported all well on board.

A Dewey Day.

Harrisburg, March 16.—A resolution was offered in the house by McWhiney of Allegheny and adopted, requesting Governor Stone to name Monday, May 1, 1899, as "Dewey Day," and designated the same as legal holiday.

Fatally Stabbed.

Detroit, March 16.—George J. Ming, 10, was stabbed by Xavier Glorabin, 12, who, it seems, started a quarrel with him. The blade penetrated a lung with probable fatal results.

THE WARSHIP CHICAGO

Ordered to Jamaica to Bring Mr. Sherman Back to America.

SUFFERS WITH PNEUMONIA.

While Traveling in the West Indies the Noted Ohio Statesman Is Seized With a Disease Which Threatens His Life.

Washington, March 16.—A telegram was received at the White House from Colgate Hoyt, who is a traveling companion of ex-Secretary Sherman, dated at Port de France, Island of Martinique, announcing that Mr. Sherman is suffering from an attack of pneumonia, and requesting that he be brought to the United States on a government vessel.

The message was sent to the navy department, and Secretary Long immediately gave the orders necessary to comply with the wish. It was found that the Chicago was just about due at Havana, and a cablegram was sent to that point to have the ship proceed at once to Kingston, Jamaica, to meet the Paris and take Mr. Sherman off.

Unless this is done, Mr. Sherman must remain on the ship for two weeks, or the excursion, which the ship carries, must be abandoned. The Chicago is provided with a medical officer so that the patient will have the best of attention on the homeward journey. He will probably be taken aboard the warship Sunday or Monday, should arrive at Hampton Roads in about a week.

There he can be taken aboard one of the Potomac river steamers and brought to Washington without much inconvenience. No further report of his condition, in addition to that received has come to General Miles.

Mr. Sherman No Better.

St. Pierre, Island of Martinique, March 16.—The condition of John Sherman, the former secretary of state, who is a passenger on board the American line steamer Paris, now making a tour of the West Indian islands, is no better.

Rise in Sugar Stock.

New York, March 16.—The rush in the sugar crowd eclipsed everything of the sensational order in the stock market of recent years. There was an immense crowd of surging brokers who were clamoring for the stock at any price. Blocks of 1,000 share changed hands frequently, and the rapidity of the rise can be judged by the fact that while 148 was the ruling price at midday, 170 was current a half hour later. The shorts were panic-stricken and fought for the stock at any price.

Counterfeiting Charged.

Washington, March 16.—Chief Willie of the secret service received a telegram stating that Isaac Silverstein and Dyer Huhman had been arrested at Kalamazoo, Mich., on a charge of counterfeiting nickels and pennies, and that a large quantity of material, dies, etc., had been captured. Much of the bogus coin is said to have been circulated in Chicago.

Carter Harrison Renominated.

Chicago, March 16.—The Democratic city convention nominated Mayor Carter H. Harrison to succeed himself. His running mates will be Edam Ortsel for city treasurer; Andrew J. Ryan, for city attorney; and William Loeffler, the present incumbent, for city clerk. The platform adopted steers clear of national issues.

Board of Inquiry at Omaha.

Omaha, March 16.—The army board of inquiry arrived in this city and started to work by looking through the packing plants at South Omaha. Particular attention was paid to the point brought out in the testimony of the physician to the effect that he had seen meat chemically treated in the Swift plant here.

JOSEPH MEDILL'S DEATH.

The Editor of the Chicago Tribune Passes Away.

Chicago, March 16.—Word was received here from San Antonio, Tex., that Joseph Medill, proprietor of the Chicago Tribune, died there.

Mr. Medill was born in New Brunswick in 1823. When 9 years of age his father moved to Stark county, Ohio, where the son worked on a farm while acquiring an education. He subsequently studied law and practiced for a time at Massillon.

In 1849, he founded a Free Soil newspaper in Coshocton, and in 1852 established a Whig newspaper in Cleveland.

In 1854, he became one of the organizers of the Republican party, and since that time had been prominent in its councils. He removed to Chicago, and in 1855 became one of the owners of The Tribune.

He was a member of the Illinois constitutional convention of 1870, and the author of the Minority representation clause, and in 1871 was a member of the United States civil service commission. He was elected mayor of Chicago in the same year, and later spent some time in Europe. On his return he purchased a controlling interest in The Tribune, and had since been its editor-in-chief.

The Venezuelan Arbitration.

Washington, March 16.—Chief Justice Brewer of the supreme court will leave the United States for Paris so as to arrive there about May 25 next, at which time the oral argument on the British-Venezuela arbitration will be heard. The hearing is expected to cover three months, after which the court is expected to devote about three months to consideration of the question, giving a decision, probably in November. Ex-President Harrison and ex-Secretary of the Navy Tracy probably will go to Paris at the same time, as they are the leading counsel for Venezuela. Their brief covers about 800 printed pages, and is in rather marked contrast to the brevity of the British brief of Sir Richard Webster, covering only 55 pages.

Comments on Choate's Speech.

London, March 16.—The afternoon newspapers contain compliment y references to the speech delivered by Joseph H. Choate, the United States ambassador, at the banquet of the association of chambers of commerce of the United Kingdom, which was held at the Metropole hotel. The St. James Gazette says: "The main fact emphasized in the tone, as much as in the words, of Mr. Choate's speech, and in President McKinley's words, which he quoted, is that Brother Jonathan has become conscious of his imperial destiny, that he is going out to see the world, and that he believes his best friend, companion and guide in the new adventure will be found in the mother country."

Japan Moving Up.

Washington, March 16.—Extensive changes in the relations between the United States and Japan will be brought about on July 17 next, when the new treaty between the two nations goes into effect. It was negotiated some years ago, but its actual operation was deferred so as to give time for adjusting affairs to the changed conditions. Similar treaties have been made by Japan with most of the other first-class powers. Their essential feature is to give Japan a status as a modern nation instead of imposing the restrictions which she was under, along with China and other eastern countries, before her advance to modern methods.

Stirred Them Up.

Madrid, March 16.—A speech made by General Castellanos, captain general of Madrid, to the soldiers during an inspection, has caused intense anger in military circles. The captain general said: "There is only one thing good in the army, and it is the soldier himself. As to the officers, if they are derelict in their duty, I am accustomed to send them to the galleys." The minister of war may take action.

Implements For Cuba.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 16.—William Willard Howard, general manager of the Cuban industrial relief fund of New York, passed through Jacksonville on his way home from Cuba, on his way north, to purchase agricultural implements and seeds for the use of the industrial relief station, which he has just established at Guines, Cuba.

Kipling Gaining Strength.

New York, March 16.—Mr. Kipling is able to sit up in bed and partake of a coarse dinner. He ate heartily of several dishes of a more substantial nature than any yet given to him. The improvement continues from hour to hour, and Dr. Dunham thinks his patient will be able to leave his bed before Sunday.

No Election.

Harrisburg, March 16.—The fifth ballot for United States senator resulted in no election.

COST IN HUMAN BLOOD

Seventeen Brave American Soldiers Killed in an Assault

ON A FORTIFIED VILLAGE.

After a Desperate Fight the Twentieth Infantry of United States Regulars Capture the Town of Caintal Northwest of Pasig.

Manilla, March 16.—The strongly-fortified village of Caintal, northwest of Pasig, was captured after a desperate fight by the Twentieth infantry.

The Americans lost 17 wounded, while the rebels loss was heavy.

List of Casualties.

Washington, March 16.—General Otis at Manila reports the following casualties: "Casualties March 13, near Guadalupe: Wounded, Twelfth infantry, company M, Sergeant William M. Barkley, shoulder, slight; near San Pedro Macati, Sixth artillery, battery B, Private Fred J. Kelly, shoulder, slight. March 14, near Guadalupe, killed: Fourth cavalry, troop E, Saddler Samuel Jones, accidentally. Wounded: Fourth cavalry, company E, Captain Fred Wheeler, hand slight; Private Mitchell Good, leg, severe; Horace Smith, side, severe; company B, George Parks, chest, severe; company E, Ernest Wilcox, arm, moderate; Twenty-second infantry, company C, Private Alfred Behm, rib, severe; Marshall Comb, palm, slight. March 15, near Pateros: Wounded, Second Oregon, company E, Private Edward Oesch, scalp, slight.

Improvement at Holo.

Washington, March 16.—The following from General Otis at Manila reached the war department: Reports from Holo indicate improvement; less activity on the part of insurgents of island; reports from Negros most encouraging; inhabitants enthusiastic; quiet prevails throughout island, and Colonel Smith directing affairs in framing internal government. Cebu quiet, business progressing under United States protection; reports from Sama and Leute indicate desire of inhabitants for United States troops; these islands occupied; insurgents control confined to Luzon and the occupation of the Pasig river line with control of Laguna de Bay has cut the country occupied by the Tagalos in nearly two equal parts."

Fired On Kansas Troops.

Manilla, March 16.—The insurgents at the outposts and in the trenches beyond Calocan fired several volleys upon the Kansas volunteers and a part of the Fourth regulars, desiring, it is supposed, to discover if the American line had been thinned by the movement of General Wheaton's command. The Americans in the trenches replied warmly to the fire. H. Y. Beecher of company A of the Montana regiment, was killed in the engagement. A battalion of the Twentieth regular infantry routed a small band of Filipinos on the Laguna road, and some sharpshooters who were firing from a house over which a French flag was flying were dislodged.

Lee Returns to Havana.

Havana, March 16.—General Fitzhugh Lee has returned here from Cienfuegos. Chief of Police Menocal, owing to the recent censures of the force, carries his resignation in his pocket. He has tendered it two or three times, but on reconsideration has withdrawn it. The new police force has unfortunately created a bad impression. During the last few days the policemen have shown timidity in handling people. They appear to be undetermined and undecided what to do or how to do it. People have no respect for them, and pay little attention to their orders, which are not enforced.

A Russian Accused.

London, March 16.—The Evening News publishes a sensational Dreyfus story. It declares that the former Russian ambassador, Count von Mohrenhelm, is the real culprit, who sold both Russian and French secrets to the German government, adding that the Russian government itself is convinced of his guilt, and that it is only to avoid a public scandal greater than the Dreyfus affair he is unpunished further than the intimation that he is not to show his face within the czar's dominions.

Reports Read.

Memphis, March 16.—The sessions of the Sovereign camp, Woodmen of the World, was devoted principally to hearing reports of the several committees appointed at former sessions.

All known Democrats and others who supported W. J. Bryan for President and those who pledge themselves to support the nominees of said State convention shall be entitled to participate in the county or legislative district conventions.

P. P. JOHNSTON, Chairman.
R. Owen Cochran, Secretary.

There is talk of building a railroad from Augusta to Germantown, so says the Maysville BULLETIN. Well, it can be done, if the men who are interested will pull together. "Sleepy old Dover" cut the pattern on railroad promoting, Germantown dropped in line, and such a thing as Augusta waking up to her interests, is possible. Maysville is beginning to turn over uneasily on her pillow, and seems to be getting ready to crawl out of her bed. In the meantime, Dover is wide awake and forging ahead.—Dover News.

Br'er Stairs is having a great time now all by himself. When he talks about "sleepy old Maysville," he must forget what Maysville has done for railroads in the past—the C. and O. and Maysville and Lexington for instance. And, there are others,—yet to come.

River News.

The Virginia will pass down at 5 o'clock this evening.

The O'Connell passed down this morning with a big string of timber.

The Queen City registered just even 250 people on the last round trip.

The Wash Honshell is en route to New Orleans with eleven barges of steel rails.

The Virginia is due down this evening and Nisbet to-night. Up for Pomeroy: Urania.

Gus Honshell and others have bought the Speedwell (old Handy) and will place her in the Huntington and Gallipolis trade.

The Jack Osborne passed up yesterday en route to where Contractor Hollenbach has a contract to build a dam. She has in tow a lot of tools and mattress boats, to be used on the job.

The engines that are driving the Urania up and down the river at such a wonderful speed were formerly on the Storm, the former railroad transfer boat at Ashland, where she was sunk and dismantled some years ago.

The raft-towing steamers from the Big Sandy and above will now commence the season's work. There is much scattered stuff that the late flood strung out along the upper Ohio, which will require time and hard work to pick up.

Chloride of Lime a Fine Disinfectant.

The best of all disinfectants is chloride of lime, and should always be kept in the house. Never forget that the sanitary state of the house requires attention all through the year and not during the hot months only. A little chloride of lime should be put down sinks and drains every night and morning. The best plan is to mix a couple of tablespoonfuls in a pail of water and flush the drains with it. Some people object to the smell, but it is so wholesome that none need mind it and it purifies the air, rendering it very fresh, where it has been close and oppressive before the introduction of the chloride.—Family Physician.

Red Hot From the Gun

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible ulcers that no treatment helped for 20 years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures cuts, bruises, burns, boils, felons, corns, skin eruptions. Best pile cure on earth. 25 cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by J. J. Wood & Son, druggists.

THE LADIES' LEAGUE

Address Delivered by President
Duley of the Board of Trade at Initial Meeting.

Lines of Work Suggested in Which All Can Labor For the Good of the City.

At the meeting Wednesday afternoon to organize a Ladies League, President John Duley of the Board of Trade was present to lend his encouragement to the movement. He delivered an address that proved very interesting, and was so heartily received that those present requested its publication. It is full of excellent suggestions, and the BULLETIN is glad to help the movement along by publishing the address in full:

Ladies of the City of Maysville: I stand before you this afternoon not for the purpose of making a speech. If I should make such an announcement as that, my greeting might be the cause of your exit from the room. Two or three weeks ago, I sat in this room when one of the prominent ministers of this city spoke to a meeting of men only, he said for the first time in his life, and while I have been in the habit of addressing a meeting of ladies only, that meeting has usually been limited to a much smaller number than this.

I am gratified to see this number present here this afternoon, from the fact that the announcement in the papers of the meeting of the ladies seemed to create a panic among them for fear they might be called upon to sign a pledge to limit their shopping to the city of Maysville. At the very outset let me disabuse your minds in regard to this feature. No such pledge, no such promise will be asked of any one here. But we do trust that before leaving here the importance of this meeting will be so impressed upon your minds that you will go away from here feeling a new responsibility resting upon you, and with a firm determination that come what may, you will do your part in carrying forward the great movement, which we hope to inaugurate. I believe with Shakespeare,—

"There is a tide in the affairs of men,
Which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune:
Omitted, all the voyage of their life
Is bound in the shallow and in miseries.
On such a full sea we are now afloat,
And we must take the current when it serves,
Or lose our ventures."

And so there is a tide in the affairs of a nation; there is a tide in the affairs of a state, and there is a tide in the affairs of a city, which, taken at its flood, leads on to prosperity, to happiness, and to all those things which are to be coveted by a civilized community.

How many ladies in this audience this afternoon have lived in Maysville five years? Please raise your hands. Ah, I see there are a goodly number. If you have lived in Maysville for the period of five years, the chances are that you are established in Maysville for a life time. Your husband is here, is he not? He is engaged around the corner in business; your husband is here, he is a practicing physician; and your husband is here, he is a lawyer; and your husband is here, he is a minister; and your husband is here, he is a contractor; and your husband is here, what is he doing? He is loading, because he can get no employment.

I cannot think that the ladies of Maysville are less patriotic than their husbands. I cannot think that the ladies of Maysville care less for the welfare of their daughters and of their sons, than the men of Maysville.

I see a mother here this afternoon. She has two beautiful daughters,—she has two beautiful sons. The sons are just merging into manhood. The daughters are just taking on the robes of womanhood. In a short time the question will present itself to this mother.—What profession, or business, are my boys going to follow? Are they to remain in this city, or will they go some place else to seek their fortunes? That mother says, "I had much rather for them to remain at home where they can be under my care, where I can, in a measure, influence the course of their lives." The question arises, what can they do? Are they fitted for mercantile pursuits? Yes, they have fine business qualifications.

Mother, of these two promising boys, what encouragement do you give to the enterprising son of Maysville? Do you speak well of her institutions? Do you patronize her establishments? Do you foster and encourage her commerce? If yes, then you deserve recognition at her hands.

Mother, of these two beautiful daughters, just budding into womanhood, what do you expect for your daughters in Maysville? Do you expect them to marry Maysville men? Where are these Maysville men to-day? Are they prosperous, are they industrious, are they progressive, are they moral? Ask yourself the question then, "what have I done to assist and to encourage the young men of Maysville to more progressive and more thorough business methods."

Just across the street, we have a building which would be a credit to a city of five times the population of Maysville,—the place which will furnish the amusement for the theater-goers and the pleasure-seekers of our city. What are you doing and what do you expect to do to influence the character of the entertainments to be presented on that stage? What character of lectures will you suggest to the managers of that theater, in order to bring about the best results to our community? Have you ever thought that you have an important work along this line?

Just across the street there stands a public institution, the building of the Mason County Historical Society. Have you ever been in it? Have you noticed the accumulation of valuable books and of papers that every boy and girl in Maysville should become familiar with? Have you been there very recently? Is it a thing of beauty and a joy forever? Is it a thing to delight the eye and make you feel this is an institution that is doing for the city of Maysville what it should do? Ladies of Maysville, do you not think that you have a right to have a voice in the management of a public institution like this? Do you not think that this building should be kept in a manner that would attract the youth of Maysville that they may gain the information therefrom that its founders intended they should?

I appeal to you to form an organization which will be a power in this community, one upon the same plan as the Board of Trade. I would suggest that you have a permanent president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer; that you have stated meetings, and that you give your association whatever name you may choose.

There is not a lady in Maysville who is entirely independent of these around her. She may have wealth in great abundance, but that wealth will not bring her the happiness which she desires. There are many important things for the ladies of Maysville to consider. You walk the streets of Maysville 100 times where you walk the streets of any other city once. Your skirts sweep our muddy crossings, your shoes carry the soil from our filthy pavements. In summer the dust blinds you. Why endure this any longer when, without extravagance, we can have streets free from mud, good sidewalks and crossings, suitable for the highest civilization.

We all admit that for a city of this size, Maysville is far ahead in a great many things any of her sister cities. We have gas and electricity for illumination. We have a system of water-works second to none in the United States. We have telephone and telegraph facilities. We have railroad connections with all the important parts of the United States. We have the Ohio river which furnishes us with cheap transportation and fuel, and will ever be a competitor to keep down high rates of freight. We have a street car line, which, by your co-operation and support, while it is good now, can be made much better. We have churches and eloquent ministers, but is it not a fact that our ministers speak to empty benches? Every Sunday they are stared in the face by the vacant pews. Can you not encourage the people of Maysville to be more loyal in their support of these great institutions?

Now, we come to the foundation of American institutions—the public and private schools. We are proud to say that the Board of Education has been able, each year, to make some improvement in the schools of the city of Maysville, and while they have not reached perfection, yet all must admit that we have an excellent system of public schools and an efficient corps of teachers. A curriculum equal to that of any other similar institution. The graduates of our public schools attest the merit of our educational facilities. We have private schools which are equal to any of their class.

It rests with the ladies of Maysville to help improve these schools, and, while these schools are provided for all, to assist in seeing that every child in the city attend these institutions and get the benefits therefrom. Another thing that I would suggest to this meeting is, that entertainment should be furnished of a character that would bring together the ladies and gentlemen of this city so that they may develop the social feature and come in touch with each other's interests.

At the first meeting of the Board of Trade, when it was my pleasure to state to that meeting its object, I said in words something like these: "We have gathered here this evening for the purpose of digging a grave, digging a grave so deep that we can bring and bury all of the jealousies, all of the envies, all of the disputes, all of the strifes, all of the failures of the past, and bury them so deep that they will never again see the light of day. Then upon this grave I would build a temple of justice, of love, of harmony, of enterprise, of intelligence, that would lift its head so high above everything in Maysville, that inhabitants would gaze upon it and see there a moment to enterprise and to harmony." So this afternoon let us dig a grave and let us bring and bury every ill feeling that has existed between one family and another, one lady and another, and let us say, "let the dead past bury its dead;" let us live in the future, for the future, in a progressive, harmonious and energetic new life.

Ladies of Maysville, do you not think there is a necessity for an organization of this kind? I feel this afternoon that I am looking into the eyes of intelligent, energetic, wide-awake women, all of whom I know and many of whom are my personal friends, and I feel that this movement will be safe in your hands. I think that you realize that this is an important matter and one that you should encourage before this meeting is dismissed, and thanking you for the courtesy you have extended by having permitted me to say these few words in this imperfect manner, I will bid you a good afternoon, after wishing you success in any movement you may undertake.

FATHER DRENNAN, the Passionist who lectured at St. Patrick's Church last night, was greeted by a large audience. His subject, "The Glories of Ireland," was mostly a historic one, illustrating the faith and forbearance of the Irish people. The lecturer had the closest attention of the audience throughout the evening, and at times his eloquence touched the hearts of all present. The Rev. Father will lecture in Cincinnati this evening at a St. Patrick's day celebration.

A Thousand Tongues
Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard street, Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this royal cure: "It soon removed the pain in my chest and I now can sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the throat, chest or lungs. Price 50c. and $1. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Carpetings for Spring.

We have the exclusive control here of a large manufacturer's output, embracing fully one hundred different patterns in Tapestries, Brussels, Moquettes, Velvets and Ingrain. After long and careful consideration we have adopted this method of Carpet selling for two reasons. First, we can give you a selection in point of quantity, quality and artistic designing the Cincinnati markets cannot rival, an impossibility under other conditions, as we have not the room to carry such an enormous stock as our selection line represents. Secondly, we can sell cheaper, much cheaper, than under the old method, as the factory carries our stock for us, and we need keep no reckoning of profit-clipping, remnants and unpopular patterns. Entering upon this different arrangement in our Carpet business there are three points in which we determine to excel: Private Patterns, High Grade Goods at Low Prices, Carpet Making. Think over what this means. First, you need not cover your floor with hackneyed patterns. On the contrary exclusive and fresh designs are at your disposal. Second, you need pay no more for the best than poorer grades cost elsewhere. Third, when the Carpet-Making is entrusted to us, we will have all Carpets machine-stitched; Bordered Carpets will be faultlessly mitered and sized. No ripped seams, no puckered corners, the cost no more. We solicit your patronage on this basis. Orders can be filled within twenty-four hours. Come in and look over our line.

COLLINS-GROVER.

A Very Pretty Wedding Solemnized Wednesday Evening at the Home of the Bride.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Loudon Grover, near Sardis, on Wednesday evening when their daughter, Miss Emma, was united in marriage to Mr. William H. Collins.

At the hour of 7 o'clock the bridal party descended the stairs, preceded by Mr. John Marshall and Mr. Robert Collins, and in the cozy little parlor the ceremony that made the twain one was gracefully performed by the Rev. P. J. Ross. There were about seventy-five guests present to witness the happy marriage.

The bride, a handsome brunette, was becomingly attired in maze silk, and she carried a bouquet of rose buds. The groom, a popular young man of the Mayslick vicinity, is a young gentleman of fine business habits. The bride was the recipient of many useful and valuable presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover are to be congratulated, as this is the sixth daughter having married in thirteen years, all having married men of sterling character, and all reside within a few miles of the parental home.

HORSE-SHOE FACTORY.

Mr. T. J. Malone Renews His Proposition to Establish a Mill in This City.

Some months ago the BULLETIN stated that Mr. T. J. Malone had written to Mayor Stallcup in regard to establishing a horse-shoe factory in this city. The substance of his proposition was given at the time, but no one interested himself in the matter, and it was dropped.

Mr. Malone was before the Directors of the Board of Trade last night, and renewed his proposition. The matter was discussed for some time, and he was then requested to reduce it to writing and present it to the full board next Monday evening, when it will be given due consideration.

Mr. Malone is now engaged in business at Pomeroy.

Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company's Challenge.

The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company challenges any other company in the United States to produce a record showing larger returns to policy holders. As a guarantee of good faith in this claim the company has deposited $200 in Mitchell, Finch & Co.'s Bank, and this sum is to go to Washington Fire Company if its claim isn't sustained. Full particulars and conditions are given in the advertisement elsewhere. When you want life insurance call on Mr. Hiram Taylor, the Northwestern's local agent.

The World's Best

Does not come to us unsought. We hunt after it, and only makers of the highest grade of Clothing and Shoes get our orders.

If you have ever worn a Suit or Overcoat from our house, "you know;" if you have not, try us this spring.

The youngsters are commonly the first in the family that require a new season's outfit. We claim distinctive merit for our line of Children's and Boys' Clothing. You will find prices so modest that it may lead to doubting quality, but we guarantee both.

Our Vestee Suits, ranging from $1.25 to $3.75, are simply elegant. Our Double-Breasted Jacket and Pants Suits, ages 8 to 15, ranging in prices from $1.50 to $4.75, we believe to be the best ever shown for the prices. You will favor yourself and us too by comparing them with those of other houses.

THE PROPER THINGS

for this Spring's good dressers are lightish colored checks and modest plaids, but serges principally in dark blue and black will contend for supremacy, and justly, too. Our Serge Suits (and we have them in all styles) will be found distinctively a "gentleman's" Suit of Clothes.

Knowing that there will be a great demand for Spring Top Coats, we secured a magnificent line of them. We cannot describe them on paper. Come in and look at them.

Our Men's and Boys' Shoes! Look at our Shoe window. It tells the tale.

NORTHWESTERN MUTUAL

Life Insurance Company, OF MILWAUKEE, WIS.

Largest Purely American Company.

Official statistics show that the Northwestern's COMBINED DEATH AND EXPENSE RATE is much below that of all the other leading companies. The assets are $128 for every $100 liability. With such conservative methods of management and such enormous resources, one can readily understand why the Northwestern can and does pay LARGER RETURNS TO THE POLICY-HOLDER. As a perfect guarantee of good faith in this claim, the local representatives of this company have this day deposited in Mitchell, Finch & Co.'s Bank two hundred dollars ($200), together with records of twenty-five policies held by prominent citizens of Mason County and Kentucky, on men of various ages, and results in no wise different from all Northwestern policies of same kind. It is hereby agreed that the said deposit of

TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS SHALL GO TO THE WASHINGTON FIRE COMPANY, of the City of Maysville, if any Life Insurance Company in the United States will produce in comparison a single policy record of similar kind showing as good results as any one of the policies referred to above. By similar policies we mean policies issued the same year, on same plan, to men of same age, and dividends used in same way. If this challenge be accepted it must be on the following conditions:

First—It must be accepted on or before April 10, 1899.
Second—The statement of the policy furnished by the competing agent must be certified as correct by Actuary and Secretary of the company that issued it, and Third—The question as to which policy shows the largest amount of dividends, after premium differences have been adjusted, is to be decided by three gentlemen, one to be selected by the agent accepting the challenge, one by the local representative of the Northwestern Life Insurance Company, and they to select the third.
